

Construction industry DX

#Design #Integration #Construction #Robot
#Remote construction #Material management
#Site labor saving #Safety management

Panasonic
Accelerator

by Electric Works Company

Division/Department

Set according to application details

Business Overview

Aiming to solve problems by DX for facility construction, mainly electrical work

Target Markets

Electrical work and other Equipment construction industry

Issue

The environment surrounding the construction industry is challenging, with low labor productivity and an aging and declining workforce.

We aim to contribute to the construction industry, especially the facility construction industry centering on electrical work, by providing DX.
We aim to contribute to the improvement of work efficiency and sophistication of construction companies.

Assets

Extensive products and services with a focus on electrical equipment / Extensive value chain / Locations throughout Japan
Expertise in human resources / Wide range of technical capabilities /
Experience participating in industry-government-academia projects

Partner Requirements

Contributing to the Permanent Development of Construction Contractors with DX
Inexpensive and easy to implement work efficiency solution
Overwhelmingly easy-to-use and user-friendly solution
We are especially looking forward to DX for design, estimating, construction, construction management, material management, safety management, etc. Of course, other proposals are also welcome.